FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH—Fourth and Cincinnati. L. E. Floyd, pastor. J. Oliver Brison, assistant. Preaching service 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject of the morning service, "The Scattering That Brings Gathering." Evening, "The Delay That Loses Purpose." These are special services and a general "call to arms." Read "War is Declared" in last Saturday's World. The captain and his lieutenants will speak to the army at 9 a. m. and register all new recruits. To which division of the army do you belong? Hitherto the cavalry has greatly outnumbered both the infantry and artillery. There is urgent need just at this time for a larger and more faithful commissary division. Owing to the extreme stress of circumstances the age limit has been removed, except in the case of babies. Martial music and military hymns will be the order. The captain will speak again at 7:30 p. m. The regular Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m.; Mr. E. W. Bryant, superintendent. Music by the Tempus Orchestra, Junior and senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:30, with refreshments at 7:30 and social hour. This week of the three weeks' revival meetings has passed. If you haven't attended any better begin today. A welcome is extended to all.

The slogan "500 or Bust" has been adopted for the campaign for attendance at the First Baptist Sunday school next Sunday morning. Oklahoma City had 375, and the local school had 435 present last Sunday. It is absolutely necessary to have at least 550 present in order to beat Oklahoma City. The contest now stands 3 to 1 in favor of Oklahoma City. Autos will be stationed at all points announced last Sunday to aid the younger members, also any of the older people who are unable to walk to the Sunday school. Remember—550 or Bust.

Careful Diagnosis. "Well, did you succeed with your first diagnosis? Did you profit by my advice?" The young doctor. "I think I did, sir. I told the patient that he was suffering from a combination of hypersthenic heart, lung and brain trouble." "Old practitioner." "Good." "No chance of a mistake there."—Stray Stories.

It Made Him Think. "I listened to your speech with the greatest care," said the consultant to the young courtshipman. "Well, I think there was food for thought in it," said the congressman. "You bet there was." It just made me think what a fool I had been to vote for you."
